Allowable Subject Matter

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art does not teach or fairly suggest a system for allocating a plurality of DSPs to handle calls in a voice gateway, said calls utilizing a plurality of different codecs, said codecs requiring a plurality of different amounts of DSP resources, said system including: means for first determining if the call can be assigned to a DSP on a best fit basis utilizing a best fit pool which indicates the DSPs that would be fully loaded by a call using a codec in the associated resource group; and means, operable if a call can not be assigned on a best fit basis, for assigning the call to a DSP utilizing a load balancing pool which indicates the number of calls on each DSP, as recited in independent claims 4, 7, 8 and 24-26. The best fit is used for a specific DSP or codec resource allocation as a primary initial resource allocation.

2. The prior art does not teach or fairly suggest a method of allocating a plurality of resources to handle tasks, said tasks utilizing a plurality of different amounts of resources, said method including the steps of: first determining if a task can be assigned to a resource on a best fit basis utilizing a best fit pool which indicates the resources that would be substantially fully loaded by a task in an associated resource group, the codecs in each resource group requiring substantially the same amount of resources; and if a task can not be assigned on a best fit basis, assigning the task to a resource utilizing a load balancing pool which indicates the number of tasks assigned to each resource, As recited in independent claims 5 and 21. The best fit is used for a specific DSP or codec resource allocation as a primary initial resource allocation.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
